

Eastern Shore Church of Christ
Hobart, Tasmania, Australia

Annual Eastern Shore Lectureship
April 28 – May 1, 2001

This year's speakers included Ronald D. Gilbert (front row left) and Jimmie B. Hill (middle row right)

Those attending came from various parts of Australia, New Zealand and the USA.

The 4-day lectureship was filled with excellent lessons from the Minor Prophets.

The Open Forum panel who answered questions: William Howard, Jimmie Hill and Allan Fowell.

Ron and Carolyn Gilbert

Jimmie and Linda Hill

The brethren provided lunch and “tea” (supper) every day in their fellowship hall downstairs.

The Aussie sandwiches were a definite hit!

With the lectures beginning at 9 AM each morning and running most of the day and evening, there was little time for much else. But there was a great view of Mt. Wellington from the church building.

The view of the Hobart harbor on the drive each day.

Garrett & Kate Leitch opened their home not only to the Gilberts and Hills, but several others who were attending the lectureship.

Gary & Helyn Young. Gary organized the lectureship and Helyn worked tirelessly behind the scenes.

You can't visit Australia without seeing at least one kangaroo!

The albino lion cub that tried to hug Carolyn . . . fortunately there was a fence between them.
